

South landing du poisson

Laragne / Méouge

(CCSB)

Ideal landing spot for southbound ballistic flights.

A large field that allows for a smooth approach and an easy landing.

Useful information

Practice : Hang-gliding

Period : Toute l'année.

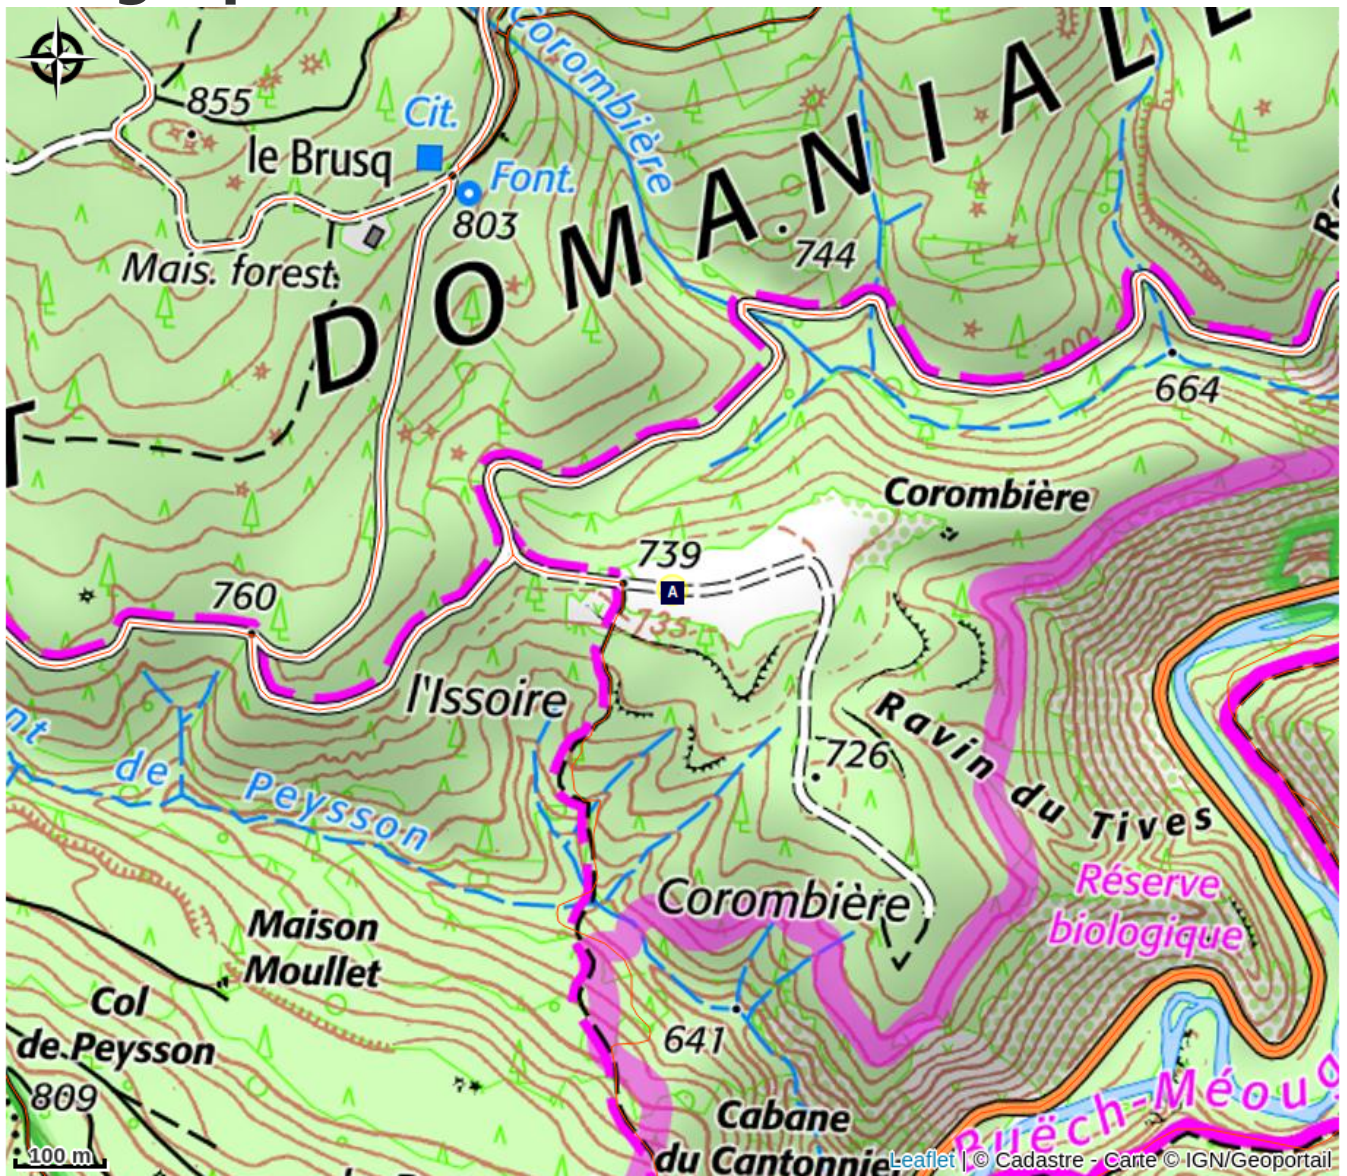

Description

Visible from takeoff and recognizable by its fish-like shape, this landing is a glide landing (except when there are strong westerly winds).

If approaching in a group, opt for a PTU.

Refer to the wind sock to plan your approach (typically, enter to the right of the first barrier, heading toward the entrance to the gorge).

Geographical location

All useful information

Advices

During the day, thermal activity can make landing challenging.

The slope descends from the wind sock; avoid landing too far down the slope.
