

Stage 2 : Montmorin - Rosans

Rosans - Valdoule

Ribeyret (CCSB)

Discover the landscapes of the Rosans region, which change with the seasons and the blooming of the flowers. The highlight of this beautiful day is Rosans, a small village offering unspoiled nature and all the charm of the South! Here you'll find all the charm of medieval towns: cobblestone streets, covered walkways, religious buildings, fountains and wash houses, beautiful mansions, and ornate gates.

After passing through Ribeyret, the route continues from pass to pass (Col des Alongs, l'Aire du Col, Col de l'Archimbaou) at the gateway to the Drôme and in the heart of the Provençal Baronnies. Here, the arid lands—ideal for growing aromatic herbs—are adorned in turn with the colors of broom, thyme, lavender, and rosemary. Ride on into Rosans, a medieval village fortified by several gates. The ochre-colored facades, the sun-kissed hues of the canal tiles, the striking Square Tower, Lesdiguières Castle, and the temple with its sundial all invite you to explore further!
