On your path...

✧ Outlook (A)

When you reach the higher up part of the first big rise of the path, there is an overview on Laragnais valley and Saint-Genis town and Corrie.

△ Roc de l'Esculier (B)

Located at 1432 meters high, Le Roc de l'Esculier is the highest point of Saint-Genis Mountain. From this place, a wonderful panoramic view allows you to discover Savournon valley and Saint-Genis Corrie. Many hilly areas like Chabre Mountain, Lure Mountain or Arambre mountain can be seen. Further, Dévoluy mountains and Ventoux mount can be seen too.

△ Colombier pass (C)

Colombier pass located at 1160 meters high, splits up the two Aup mountain's sides - Aup is another name for Saint-Genis Mountain -. From the pass, you can go to many villages like Lazer, Eyguians, Saint-Genis and Savournon.

🌀 Saint-Genis mountain's ridge. (D)

The ridge of the « Saint-Genis Mountain circuit »'s hiking is an unmissable passage. This place offers a beautiful panoramic view on Le Laragnais, Channe valley and the Serrois. Many hilly areas like Lure Mountain, Monges mountain, Dévoluy mountain, Arambre mountain and more can be seen.

☀️ The Riou (E)

The Riou takes its source at the bottom of the valley, digging beautiful gorges. It then comes to fill the Riou lake, very popular spot among tourists and locals during hot Summer days.
