

Saint-Symphorien

Sisteron - Entrepierres

Pont de la Reine Jeanne (CCSB)

This short back and forth hike leads to the hamlet of Saint-Symphorien. Now a ghost village, it has been gradually abandoned by its inhabitants. In 1973, definitively emptied, it was attached to Vilhosc in the commune of Entrepierres. At the beginning of the hike, you'll cross a bridge, the Pont de la Reine Jeanne. Its construction dates from the end of the 14th century. Its name refers to Queen Jeanne 1st of Anjou, who was also Queen of Provence and Naples, in recognition of the good she did for the people of Sisteron by improving their living conditions.
