Beaumont Rock (A)

An exceptional viewpoint over the Buëch region, the Rocher de Beaumont, located at 1,545 meters, offers a magnificent 360° panorama of the surrounding mountain ranges. From here, the Digne Pre-Alps, the Dévoluy, the Écrins, and even Mont Ventoux are visible. The summit also offers a superb view of the village of Serres, the Buëch, and the Drôme Provençale. Communication antennas are installed on the rock, and these can be seen from the valley floor and the departmental road.
