This authentic stage begins in the hills above Eygalayes and continues around Lachau. Just outside the village stands one of the few Romanesque buildings in the Baronnies region: the Church of Notre Dame de Calma, built in the 13th century.

The day continues through a much wilder landscape, at the foot of Mount Riabie and just below Mount Pied du Mulet, ending in Eourres, a village known for its alternative lifestyle, deeply committed to environmental protection, and full of vitality.
