

Step 3 : Laragne - Barret-sur-Méouge

Laragne / Méouge - Laragne-Montéglin

Gorges de la Méouge (Remi Fabregue)

The very first part of the stage, along the D 942, is not particularly interesting and actually requires great caution. It continues with a very scenic route along the Méouge River, especially in the fall when the foliage is colorful (not recommended during freezing weather, as it involves crossing a waterfall).

Shortly after, leave the D 942 and follow a trail south toward St-Pierre-Avez.

From the ruins of Piloubeau, the highest point of the route, the trail continues along a forest road leading to the hamlet of Pomet. Descend the small road that continues on the other bank of the Méouge. Cross the famous Roman Bridge and gradually climb up a trail that follows the course of the Méouge. After about 1.5 km, a forest track leads you toward the center of the village of Saint-Pierre-Avez. The route then descends back toward the Méouge, follows it along, and crosses it to reach Barret-sur-Méouge.

Useful information

---

Practice : Trek

---

Duration : 6 h 30

---

Length : 20.6 km

---

Trek ascent : 947 m

---

Difficulty : Medium

Trek

Departure : City, Laragne

Arrival : Village, Barret-sur-Méouge

Markings :  GRP

Cities : 1. Laragne-Montéglin

2. Val Buëch-Méouge

3. Saint-Pierre-Avez

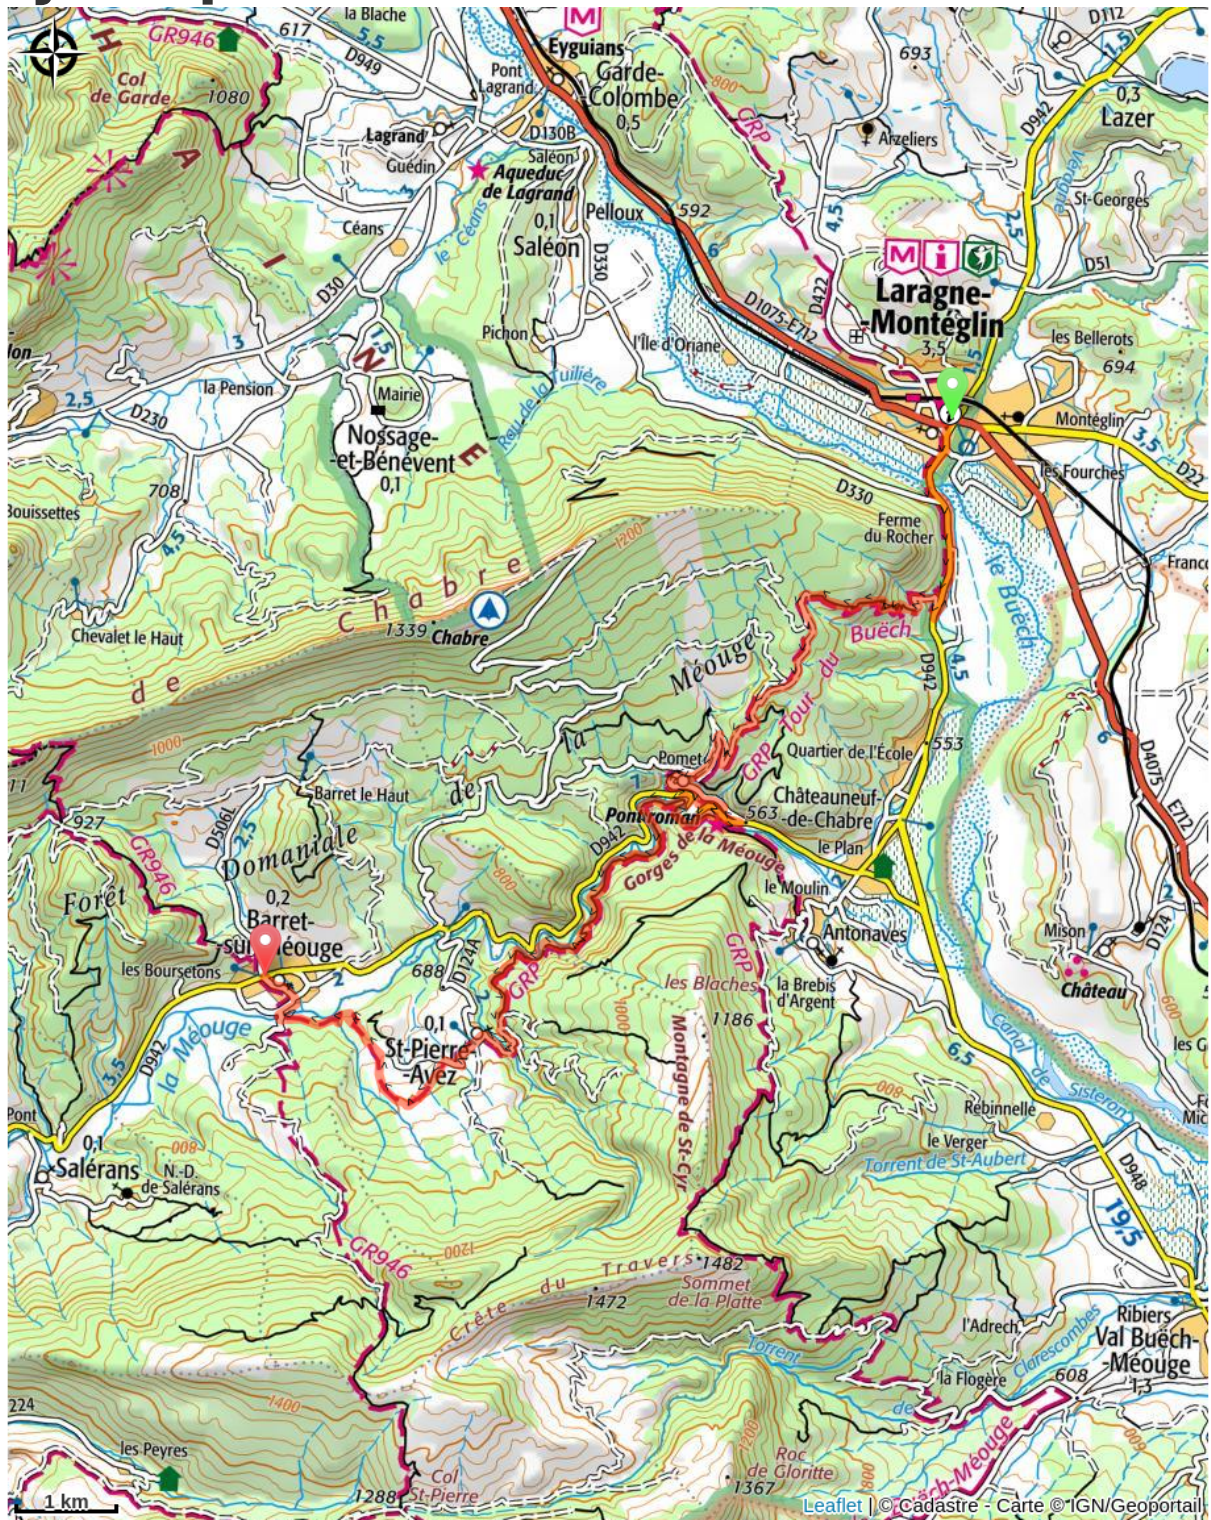

4. Barret-sur-Méouge

Altimetric profile

Min elevation 554 m Max elevation 884 m

On your path...

All useful information

Information desks

Office de Tourisme Sisteron Les Alpes provençales - bureau de Laragne

Place des Aires, None 05300 Laragne-
Montéglin

laragne@sisteron-alpesprovencales.fr

Tel : 04 92 65 09 38

<https://www.sisteron-alpesprovencales.fr/>

